

Bill4Time is Now a Premium Solutions Provider of the American Bar Association's Law Practice Management

Bill4Time, the time tracking and invoicing software proven to help professionals run their businesses successfully, is now a Premium Solutions Provider of the American Bar Association's Law Practice Management Section (LPM).

Since 1974, LPM has been the resource needed for lawyers to successfully manage their law practice. LPM supplies lawyers and legal professionals with information and resources in the core areas of marketing, management, technology and finance.

"ABA LPM Integrated Media Packages are designed to bring top legal vendors in the LPM space as a unique way to engage with members," says Tom Mighell, Chair, ABA Law Practice Management Section. "These packages provide an incredible amount of value by combining print, digital, online, email, social media, and public relations marketing. This program brands companies as a partner to all 14,000 members of the ABA LPM section."

Bill4Time is a complete web-based time billing software offering time and expense tracking, project and case management, invoicing and more. Developed with the guidance of law firms, Bill4Time's web based time billing software serves solo, small and large law practices. Bill4Time has created simple to use, intuitive and user friendly software with strong focus on convenience. Bill4Time offers anytime, anywhere online account access and mobile apps so professionals can focus more on what they do best. Bill4Time has all the basic features a general law practice requires, plus more sophisticated features for specialized firms including ABA Task Codes, LEDES invoice exports, conflict checker, Trust accounting, Trust reports and summaries on invoices.

"At Bill4Time we commend the mission of the ABA's LPM to help lawyers practice law effectively and successfully while maintaining the highest standards of the profession," says Jeremy Diviney, Head of Operations. "Our goal is creating software that does the same which is why we find great value in being an ABA Premium Solutions Provider."
